

UNIT IV: Presentation Strategies

1. What are the key elements involved in delivering speech effectively during presentations, and how does nonverbal communication and audio-visual aids contribute to overall presentation effectiveness?
2. How do paralinguistics, including quality, volume, pace, pitch, articulation and pronunciation contribute to effective communication during a presentation?
3. Compare and contrast all the four methods of delivery of presentation in terms of disadvantages, and suitability for a formal business presentation.
4. What are the nuances of speech delivery in presentation strategies? Also, write about the relevance of nonverbal component and audio-visual in presentation.
5. What are the paralinguistic features of presentation strategies? How could articulation be improved by voice modulation?
6. Explain in brief the presentation techniques or methods of delivery.
7. Explain the importance of kinesics in verbal as well as in non-verbal communication.
8. What is the role of volume and pronunciation in effective communication?
9. What is the importance of Group Discussion? Explain with example.