

UNIT V: Value-based Text Reading

1. What is the central idea of the essay 'The Language of Literature and Science'?
2. Explore the themes of perception, disability and irony in the short story 'The Eyes are not here'.

3. What makes 'The Barber's Trade Union' so timelessly interesting? Also discuss the role of Chandu in the story.

4. How do men in the scientific world acquire power over nature's forces? Discuss with reference to Bertrand Russell's essay 'God in this Godless Universe'.

5. "The new hazards are neither local nor brief," Discuss this statement with reference to Barry Commoner's essay.

6. Discuss how Chandu's actions in the story 'The Barber's Trade Union' influence the village barber community and reflect the broader social transformation.

7. What is the thematic approach of the short story 'The Eyes Are Not Here' by Ruskin Bond?

8. Write critical appreciation of the essay 'Man and Nature' by J. Bronowski.

9. What is the impact of industrialization on the ecological balance in nature? Suggest ways and means to devise safeguards for the sustenance of ecology apropos Barry Commoner's views in his essay 'Science and Survival'.

10. Discuss 'The Barber's Trade Union' as a realistic picture of our social environment. Explain it.

11. Differentiate between language of literature and that of science as described by Aldous Huxley in his essay 'The Language of Literature and Science'.

12. Do you discover an idea and a psychological element in 'The Lament'? Explain it.